GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Scope of the Study

POLITICAL LAW is that branch of public law which deals with the organization and operations of the governmental organs of the State and defines the relations of the State with the inhabitants of its territory.

In the present law curriculum prescribed by the Supreme Court, Political Law embraces Constitutional Law I and II, Administrative Law, the Law of Public Officers, Election Law and the Law on Municipal Corporations.

Constitutional Law I, which is the particular subject of this work, is a study of the structure and powers of the Government of the Republic of the Philippines. It also deals with certain basic concepts of Political Law, such as the nature of the State, the supremacy of the Constitution, the separation of powers, and the rule of the majority.

Necessity for the Study

The inclusion of Political Law as a required subject in the law course is only one of the reasons for its study.
